My Favorite French Songs

Books I and II

By EMMA CALVÉ

High Voice Low Voice

¶The great singer here gathers together her favorites among French songs—mostly modern, some operatic, and a few of the ultra-modern school. To these she adds a group of "Songs my Grandmother sang," making a truly unique and distinguished collection. From these charming old melodies down to the songs of Debussy the singer indicates all that is best in the realm of French song composition. Complete with biographical sketch with portraits and an introduction from Mme. Calvé's pen.

A splendid group of songs valuable to both singers and concert goers.—BOSTON TIMES

My Favorite Songs

Books I and II

By JULIA CULP

High Voice Low Voice

¶The favorite songs of this highly praised Lieder-singer are drawn from the music of many different lands, from her native Holland to our own America, and including France, Germany, Ireland, etc. This collection is made up of such numbers as have won Mme. Culp's affection as well as proved their acceptability to her enthusiastic audiences, and the volume is of extraordinary interest. A charming introduction from the singer's own pen and portraits enrich the book.

The triumphs of the singer are reflected in her book.—THE MUSICIAN

My Favorite Songs

High Voice

By GERALDINE FARRAR

Low Voice

¶This gifted singer shows her musical training by the preponderance of German songs in the collection she has brought together. The various numbers have been sought out with indefatigable zeal, largely from treasures of song buried or neglected in the works of great writers, and are therefore, in many ways, new to the average teacher or singer. Songs from other lands, such as Russia and Scandinavia are also included. The book contains a biographical sketch, portraits, a striking portrait on the cameo plate paper cover, in the engraver's best art.

Miss Farrar's selection evidences a most eclectic and at the same time impeccable musical taste.—MUSICAL COURIER

My Favorite German Songs

High Voice

By ELENA GERHARDT

Low Voice

¶As an interpreter of German lyric art, Miss Gerhardt has few rivals. From her recital programs she has selected the most effective and successful numbers to make up this desirable volume, which thus forms a representative collection of vital master-songs chosen from the works of classic and modern composers of the Lied. The book contains an autobiographical sketch in German and English, and portraits.

A notable volume and stands high in the productions of American publishing houses. It is, indeed, a treasury of German lieder chosen with rare judgment.—MUSICAL AMERICA

My Favorite Songs

High Voice

By ALMA GLUCK

Low Voice

¶No contemporary recital-singer has a larger following of charmed listeners than Mme. Gluck, and her excellent choice of songs plays a vital part in her success. The numbers included in this volume she has gathered from many sources; but they all serve to display the suave lyricism, the delicate nuances, and the arch humor of her captivating art. Portraits and an introduction from the pen of the singer complete the attractive features of the book.

Singers will do well to avail themselves of this rare selection of songs, with which the favorite singer has largely won her popularity.—THE MUSICIAN
